

3rd Annual LAUrban Meeting Call for Papers

LACEA's Latin American Urban Economics Network LAUrban is pleased to announce the call for papers for the 3rd LAUrban Annual Meeting in Mexico City, Mexico on December 5th and 6th, 2024. The event will be organized with Banco de México as our local partner. The meeting will have Paulina Oliva (University of Southern California) and Matthew Turner (Brown University) as distinguished keynote speakers.

LAUrban is a network affiliated with the Latin American and Caribbean Economic Association (LACEA). LAUrban brings together economists from Latin America, the Caribbean, and other parts of the world doing cutting-edge research on Urban and Spatial Economics in the LAC region and economists working in Labor, Development, Public, Trade, and other applied fields with an urban perspective.

Topics and Format

The focus is Urban Economics. We encourage the submission of original research concerned with urban and spatial issues in developing countries, especially in the LAC region. We will give preference to full papers and papers on the LAC region. The scientific committee will select up to eight papers, and all papers will have a discussant.

Submission and Registration

The deadline for paper submission is August 31. Acceptance decisions will be notified by September 30. Please submit your paper to urbanlacea@banxico.org.mx.

There will be no registration fee. We will cover accommodation expenses for presenters. We have additional limited funds for travel support, which we will allocate based on individual needs. Participants should indicate in their submission if they want to be considered for travel support.

Scientific Committee

Lorenzo Aldeco (Banco de México), Guillermo Alves (CAF—Development Bank of Latin America), Jorge De la Roca (University of Southern California), Danae Hernández-Cortés (Arizona State University), Sophie Mathes (EPGE Brazilian School of Economics and Finance - Fundação Getulio Vargas), Jorge Pérez Pérez (Banco de México), Luis Quintero (Johns Hopkins University / Inter-American Development Bank).
